

When our world became Christian

ORGANIZER

www.ouc.ac.cy
E: info@ouc.ac.cy
T: (357) 22 411 600 / 743

LECTURE SERIES CONVENOR

Associate Professor Georgios Deligiannakis
Programme "Studies in Hellenic Culture"

E: g.deligiannakis@ouc.ac.cy

SUPPORTERS

The lectures will be broadcasted through the eLearning platform of the Open University of Cyprus. Audiovisual material are likely to be used in publicity/promotional material of the Open University of Cyprus and the traditional and new Media.

LECTURE SERIES IN LATE ANTIQUITY

3rd Series - Spring Term 2021

All online lectures start at 19.00 and finish at 21.00 (EET)

Open University of Cyprus
Programme "Studies in Hellenic Culture"

ONLINE, CLICK HERE

OR

SCAN THE QR CODE

When our world became Christian

PROGRAMME

Thursday 25 February 2021

VAIOS LIAPIS

Professor of Ancient Theater and its Reception, Open University of Cyprus

The holy man: Aspects of religious polemics during the first Christian centuries

Thursday 11 March 2021

ISABELLA BALDINI

Professor of Late Roman & Byzantine Archeology, University of Bologna

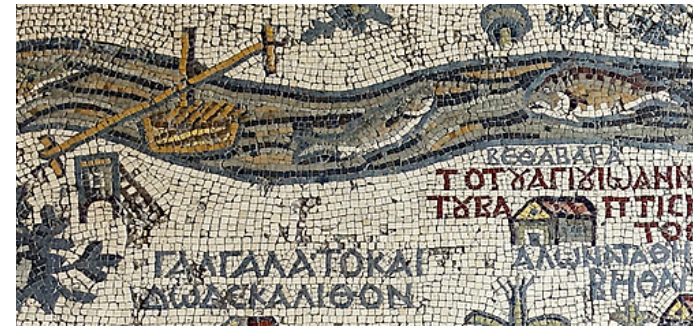

Gortyn from Paganism to Christianity in the archaeological record

Thursday 18 March 2021

IGNAZIO TANTILLO

Professor of Roman History, University of Naples

The survival of pagan practices among Christians in northern Africa

Thursday 8 April 2021

THEODOROS MAVROGIANNIS

Professor of Ancient History, University of Cyprus

Triparadeisos and Abai: The cradle of the Macedonians of Upper Syria and the Arab kings of Emesa

Thursday 22 April 2021

ATHANASIOS SEMOGLU

Professor of Byzantine Archeology, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki

Looking at the pilgrimage iconography of St. Thecla in late antiquity

Thursday 6 May 2021

STAMATIA ELEFTHERATOU

Curator, New Acropolis Museum

Tracing late antique Athens through the study of a neighbourhood to the south of the Acropolis: the case of 'the Makryghiannis Street plot'

